WESTGOLD RE-ENTERS ASX200 INDEX

Westgold is pleased to advise that it will be re-entering the S&P All Australian 200 Index on 22 June 2020.

Westgold was previously in the index until June 2019 when it was removed due a reduction in its rolling market capitalisation. The recovery enabling re-entry, 12 months later, validates the refocus of the organisation on its core Murchison assets and the efforts of its wonderful staff and stakeholders in its gold operations.

Being a member of the ASX200 exposes Westgold to a much larger investment audience, appreciative of the groups status as a growing and purely Australian gold business.
